by WALTER M. BARRETT

We wonder at times if we allreally appreciate the undisputed privileges enjoyed under our American form of government. Are we fully aware of the great advantages we have over other nations of the world? Of course the vast majority of us can make comparison only through what we read and are told of conditions in other countries, but even this should show us, beyond a question of a doubt ,that we are most fortunate' Writing in The Publishers Auxiliary, Wright A. Patterson hits the nail squarely on the head with this paragraph: "When we normal Americans fully realize what we have; when we shout our appreciation of the American way of life ,our love of country, from the hilltops, our democracy, our liberties ,will be safe." We don't believe we should ever take for granted the privileges of being Americans.

We still believe that Truckee can offer the best in winter sports advantages, but we are equally certain that unless increasing interest in the project is manifest, we will have plenty of snow, but sans snow sports this season. The meeting Tuesday should attract a much larger group than was present last week. We may as well forget the oft-repeated statement that "people will come to Truckee for winter sports regardless of our program.", and put our efforts to providing that program. People will come by the thousand if we can offer them even a small reason, but they will not come in any noticable numbers unless we do.

Even the tyro will tell you that fishing is improving in this region during this season. This may be caused by any number of things but one of the biggest reasons, we believe, is a fact that we do not tolerate the flagrant law violators. Once we thought it a laughing matter if a man caught and sold several limits of fish in one day or if he was apprehended fishing in an illegal manner, but we have learned to take the matter seriously and it is resulting in the saving of thousands of trout annually. Rearing and planting are all fine and are greatly appreciated, but with continued market fishing and illegal methods, all our planting program would be of little avail.

N. Y. A. MAN TO BE IN TRUCKEE FRIDAY

Drive Started To Enlist Aid In Snow Sport

Committee Seeking Members In Truckee Outing Club Here

CO-OPERATION NEEDED

Plans Are Formulated For Up-Ski at Local Grounds

An organized membership drive in which it is hoped to enlist the aid of at least 300 members is the first objective of the revived Truckee Outing Club. This was decided at a meeting held last Thursday night at the fire station attended by a small but enthusiastic group of snow sportsters and others interested in the development of the popular recreation here.

While efforts are still being made to procure the aid of the CCC or the SRA in preparing the hill south of Truckee for the sports, the club aims to at least install a motor driven up-ski during the next few weeks. Concentrating on this feature and the preparation of the hill will tax the financial rating of the club, but co-operation in the membership drive will go far in this program.

Another meeting of the club will be held Tuesday evening when further details will be worked out and a definite program outlined. Various committees on costs, et cetra, will render reports.

President Yell Nobles, who presided at the session, urged that a greater attendance mark the meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Pounds, Mrs. Antone Mahne and Patricia and Marlene Joan Mahne, Jim Leamon, Sam Costa, Jack Circo, August Esola, Kenneth and Lester Foster, Jerry Pellegrini, Harry Digesti, F. W. Vollmar and Gale Jocelyn Vollmar.

COUNTY PAYS OUT MORE THAN RECEIPTS

Although warrants paid by the county treasury during June exceeded the payins, the former being $98,362.12 and the latter $37,339.69, the county is not "in the red" by along ways, as there is a comfortable balance in the trasury to meet the deficiency.

Among the payins last month were: Meadow Lake Union High School, $2.25 for refund on used material; C. B. White, $10 for filing fee for nomination papers for county supervisor and George L. Jones, $60 for filing fee for nomination papers for Superior Court judge.

ASSEMBLYMAN THURMAN

LEGISLATOR VISITS TRUCKEE LIONS CLUB MEETING WEDNESDAY

Your voice over the telephone may be a valuable asset or a damaging liaibility to your business.

This in brief was the lesson revealed in an interesting and educational motion picture film shown through the courtesy of A. P. Leitch, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office here, before the Truckee Lions Club last evening at the California Cafe.

The talking picture showed very definitely that conduct over the telephone, the manner of speaking and reception of the message go far in making or breaking business relations.

Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman, candidate for re-election this year, who with Robert Durant of Colfax, visited the club, spoke breifly and invited the Truckee Lions to join the club from his town in a joint Ladies Night meeting at a central point during August. He also promised to arrange a visit for Congressman Harry L. Englebright and State Senator Jerrold L. Seawell to the local club in the near future. The sale of the fixtures and stock was made by Bert T. Weeden, who has managed the place for the past two and a half years. Weeden has not revealed his future plans but said he would enjoy a vacation in the south before returning to establish himself in Truckee where he owns his home.

Truckee Power Rates Second In California

70 Per Cent Gain Recorded In Heating, Cooking Use Here

In a recent publication of the Federal Power Commission "Typical Electric Bills for California", Truckee is given second place as having the lowest average charge per kilowatt hour for a consumption of 250 KWH for residential use.

To rank second in low charges for this amount of electricity used, out of a total of 742 communities served in the state, is one that the people of the Truckee Public Utility District may well be proud of and that it is appreciated is evident from the fact that there has been a 70 per cent increase in the heating and cooking customers of the district who come under the rate in the past five years.

Manager C. Edmunds states that while in some of the other amounts of kilowatt hours used, the district does not compare so favorably, however, the report indicates that the other rates are about on an average. As an illustration, in the charges for 25 KWH in communities of from 1000 to 2500 population ranks in 97th place out of a total of 163 listed.

SERIES OF MAN-MADE FIRES AT LAKE TAHOE

A camper who built a fire in a forbidden area and a careless cigarette smoker caused two blazes near Kings Beach in the Tahoe National Forest last week-end which required quick work on the part of the forest service employes and equipment to extinquish before serious damage was done.

The pumper truck was called to a closed area near Fox avenue on Friday to put out a fire built by a camper who is being traced by the forest authoritites. A lighted match or cigarette dropped along Rainbow avenue burned over a few square feet before it was put out by a forest service crew.

At Tahoe City Sunday a fire which was allowed to get out of control at the town garbage dump gave Ranger Charles Armeut and crew hard work for some hours, making necessary the use of the new fire pumper truck and the calling in of suppression crews from Truckee. At Fallen Leaf Lake, near the southern end of Lake Tahoe, a small fire was put out by Fire Guard Lee Hill of Meyers station of Tuesday.

CALM DOWN, DOROTHY

Dorothy Thompson is very angry at the Republican Party for not having agreed to plunge this nation into the European war. If Miss Thompson is pulling her hair, the foriegn policy plan kin the Republican platform must have been much more satisfactory to Americans who do not want involvement in war than it seemed at first glance. But who is Dorothy Thompson to be telling the Republicans off? If she had had her way and her advice had been taken, the Republicans would have disbanded, called off their convention and handed President Roosevelt a third term by acclamation. Miss Thompson, who is so strongly for saving the democratic principle in Europe, wanted it abondoned in this country because of a so-called national emergency. Miss Thompson should seek a nice cool corner somewhere and relax.— Fort Wayne (Ind.) News Sentinel .

FOR FREEDOM'S CAUSE

Emil Ludwig, noted historian and biographer now residing in Santa Barbara, voices firm conviction that Europe will not for long be ruled by Hitler's minions and agents of the Gestapo.

Out of the death throes of a dying Europe, asserts the celebrated author, "will emerge a federated body of United States of Europe, with one border, one currency, one spirit, but not under Hitler's swastika. The states will be united—under a flag of their own making!"

Certainly the record of history confirms the fact that people who have once tasted freedom will not for long accept substitutes. Free governments offer people enormously greater chances to win happiness for themselves, to be their own bosses instead of existing as mindless puppets to be tyrannically bossed by the State. Those woh have known liberty will not forever be content to live on guns instead of butter, to sweat for the almighty State instead of for themselves, or to of individual freedom.

The defatists and weak-hearted in our midst who see in the temporary eclipse of freedom abroad the death knell of of free institutions will give much comfort to the present overlord of Europe. He could ask for no better fifth columnists. But they misread the lesson of history. Nations are mortal, but immortal are the cause of freedom and the love of liberty!

ROOSEVELT VS. WILLKIE

There has never been a presidential election like this one promises to be—and there will never be another like it. For the issues on which it must be fought are at once so fundamental and so diametrically opposed that on November 5 the American people must choose between two roads of different from each other as night is from day; and from the road they choose there will be no turning back.

One road is pointed by the New Deal—with its eight-year record of experimentation and its steady movement toward governmental dominance of business, of social advances, of reforms of labor, of capital—on to final solidification of American Democracy in a pattern of State paternalism.

The other road, strangely, is that of none of the political strategists. It is the road proposed by Wendell Willkie and the millions who spontaneously catapulted him into the Republican candidacy. His crusade is for a return of the control of private enterprise, large and small, to the people; for return of government to the strict functions of government; for the liberation of farmer, worker, craftsmen, businessmen and investor from tax-financed competition.

The champions, strong and sincere men, will fight it out in the political arena. And the people, silently watching and weighing, will decide, as always, their own fate.

Lift Up THINE Eyes

IN the five generations since 1740, we Americans have performed the heroic task of clearing, populating, farming, industrializing and civilizing a country larger than England, France, Germany, Spain and Italy put together.

Because we have looked always forward and upward, and have worked hard, we have achieved the highest standard of living in the world.

One of the most potent of all the forces that have created this living standard is advertising, which inspires us to want always the new and better things and ways of life.

Of late years it has been the fashion among our radical reformers to attack advertising as an economic waste.

How silly, in view of the magnificent service it has rendered us! Let's encourage it and use it for an ever brighter future.

Politically Speaking

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, July 25 —(U.P.)— When the history of the Olson administration is written, there will be one humorous chapter concerning the now-famous "go to hell" crack that Lieutenant Governor Ellis E. Patterson made to Governor Olson in the excitement of the national Democratic convention.

That comedy of errors held Olson up to ridicule the country over, probably constituted his worst lapse of judgment since he took over his duties in 1939.

Patterson became very riled when Olson telephoned him from Chicago and suggested Patterson resign so the governor coul dappoint a new lieutenant gvernor and improve his chances for becoming nominated for vice president. Patterson took the logical course, told the governor where he could go, and proceeded to kick over the applecart.

Biggest sensation was his reappointment of James K. Moffitt, San Francisco banker, to the board of regents of the University of California for a 16 year term. That juicy plum had been dangling on the Olson tree for many weeks, was neatly plucked off by Patterson to show Democrats and Mr. Olson that he was acting governor in fact as well as name.

There were other vacancies eligible for the irrepressible Mr. Patterson if he wished to fill them. He continued to sizzle at the abortive attempt to read hi mout of the party and was giving out caustic quotes with each succeeding press conference. The theme of them all was that "I'm a better Democrat than they are and a better Democrat than Olson—let them try it. I am in the Democratic party to stay as long as it is the party of the people."

Know Your AMERICA

(Ed. Note: This is one of a series of short articles taken from data compiled for scenes of "America! Cavalcade of a Nation", theme spectacle of the 1940 California World's Fair.)

Private schools supported by the churches and missionary societies were the sole means of education in the American colonies. Free public schools and colleges supported by the state weer unkonwn in the eighteenth century. Most colonial boys got little schooling beyond the early teens. Only the sons and daughters of the wealthy could take private lessons in painting, music, French and other subjects in the liberal arts. Boys who wished to enter professions learned their trade or profession as apprentices. Most girls, destined to marry early and rear large families, learned their domestic duties in the homes from their mothers and older sisters.

Anybody who knows Patterson realizes that the whole episode was made to order for him to splash back on the front pages and revive his flagging campaign for United States Senator. He was practically an "also-ran" against the strong Hiram Johnson and other opponents on the Democratic ticket, with the election still sme weeks away.

Patterson . got so mad over the telephone call he lost his appetite for the lunch he was eating and hurried up a press conference when inquiries began arriving from Chicago as t owhat he told the governor. What he said he told the governor was a bit more profane than may be set forth here, but it left no doubt as to his opininon of the request. He said he was offered a superior judgeship "or any other position" he wanted if he would step out of the way.

Probably the funniest aspect of the whole case was the seriousness with which Olson and his backers took his abortive campaign for vice president. Buttons and posters were fixed up in Chicago, gossip peddled that Olson was colse enough to Roosevelt to merit consideration for the nomination. What they probably didn't realize was that few if any seasoned political observers and newspapermen in Chicago even gave Olson a tumble, confined speculation to the nationally-known political figures.

Olson was an unknown when he came into office, got his biggest dose of publicity when he pardoned Tom Mooney in his first week as governor. Only few incidents have put Olson's name in the national headlines breifly, including ham and eggs elections and his refusal to block extradition of Willie Bioff, Hollywood labor leader.

His opponents point out he is far from a universally-popular governor within his own state, being faced with a recall threat and at various times being at outs with farmers, the public utilities, American Legion, left-wing labor, ham and eggs army and other factions.

Surroundned by well-wishers and backslappers, Olson apparently failed to realize his boom woul blow over without a ripple. He picked up the telephone for the now famous confab with Patterson and all hick broke loose over his head. He may have an answer or denial, but the damage seems to be done.

Patterson's sagacity as a campaigner cannot be overlooked despite the fact he is likely to run far behind Senator Johnson in August. As acting governor, he issued a proclamation setting aside the week f Aug. 26 to Aug. 30 as Children Week at the San Francisco World's Fair. He issued an appeal to make possible the transportation of rphans and needy kids to the fair.

He knew, of course, that Aug. 27 is election day, that he may make the front page of every paper that week as the benefactor of youth.

The Man At The Keyhole

by OPERATIVE WB

As exclusively forecast by The Man At The Keyhole some weeks aback, Helen Gahagan, the beautiful stage and screen star, has been elected Democratic national committeewoman from California. And as also forecast, the rank and file ladies of California Democracy are burnt to a crisp. Over the teacups, they're even spreading the rumor that her well-heeled hubby, Melvyn Douglas, "bought" the appointment by paying the expenses of numerous California delegates to the Chicago convention.

The betting agencies make President Roosevelt a 10 to 7 favorite. In places where the boys bet folding money and ask no questions, Willkie's stock has climbed two points in two weeks.

That "Go to Hell" rejoinder of Liuet.-Gov. Ellis E. Patterson, when Governor Olson long-distanced his amazing request for Mr. Patterson's resignation, has set more tongues wagging than anything in many a moon. Like Hiram Johnson's famous crack of two decades ago—"A Man Must Eat"—Mr. Patterson's brief but forceful utterance promises to become a political calssic. Many men have the urge to tell a Governor to go whither, but few utter it.

A new law prohibits disposal of naval or military weapons, ships, aircraft or supplies, unless the responsible official certifies that such aritcles are not essential to national defense, All transactions must be reported to Congress.

CARELESS DRIVERS COST S. P. TIDY SUM

Although the careless motorist bucks heavy odds every time he tries to beat a train to a crossing, the property loss isn't so one-sided as it might seem, according to the Southern Pacific company.

Huge sums have been expended by Southern Pacific to protect it grade crossings with wig-wags, flagmen, gates, lights, bells and warning signs, but in spite of all this the company was put to $37,297 expense last year for repairs to locomotives, other equipment and rights-of-way damaged in crossing collisions with autos and trucks, F. L. McCaffery, general auditor ,reported this week. The figure does not include thousaands of dollars for investigations and losses due to disruption of schedules, he said.

McCaffery pointed out that failure to heed warnings not only leads motorists to drive onto to tracks in front of locomotives but also cuases them to run into the sides of trains in a great many crossing accidents.

And So There Wouldn't

The other day an architect, a contractor and a retail lumber dealer became involved in an argument over which one of them was the most important factor in building a home. Unable to arrive at a decision by themselves, they appealed to a prospective home owner who listened intently as each in turn stated his case.

"There appears to be considerable merit in all your claims," he said finally. "The architect for his talent in design, the contractor for his skill in construction, and the lumber dealer for his knowledge of materials are equally necessary when it comes to building a home. But did it ever occur to you gentlemen that if it weren't for the likes of me, there would be no need for the likes of you?"

ONLY ONE SUN IN 6TH ASSEMBLY DIST.

According to Allen G. Thurman who represents this county in the state assembly, there are 29 weekly, daily and semi-weekly newspapers published in the Sixth assembly district. Oddly enough there are only two sets of newspapers which bear the same name. There are two Independents and two Democrats. The other 25 papers all bear different names.

The only Sun published in the ten mountain counties is the Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican of Truckee.

Assemblyman Thurman reads all of the 29 newspapers each week, including his own, The Colfax Record, which he has published for the past twenty years.

Durrer has been cutting the lawns at the fair grounds for the past nine years and has worn out three big lawn mowers. The lawns, mostly of Bermuda sod and clover, are trimmed most of the year, and while much of the sprinkling is done automatically, 6,000 feet of hose is also used. A new addition to Durrers domain is the lawn abut the new junior division and soon to be added is the new Fiesta Bowl.

SAFETY FIRST

Almost anyone can install electrical wiring and electrical appartus so that they will work after a fashion. But to install them so that the greatest degree of safety will be assured, that their mechanical perfection will be realized and that the instllaton will be forever free form constant tinkering is another matter.

And that brings up the matter of doing electrical work in a "maybe-or-may-be-not" fashion by yourself or having it done by an expert electrician. Each year the National Board of Fire Underwriters add up thou sands and thousands of dollars, needlessly destroyed by fire through well meaning but incompetent workmanship of amatuer electricians. Is your home, your most valued possession, worth gambling against the few dollars charged by the master electrcian or the chances of fire through amatuerish workmanship?

CALIFORNIA HAS NEW EGG LAW

The law takes effect July 1st. Under it, first grade eggs are marked Grade AA. Second grade eggs are marked Grade A and third grade eggs are marked Grade B. The eggs must also be marked Large, Medium or Small to tell their size. Grade AA eggs must have thick whites and firm yokes and be in the bloom of youth when sold to the consumer. Grade A eggs are good eggs but have lost the bloom of youth. Grade B is the lowest grade a dealer can retail. Eggs from hens out of condition or eggs left in a hot chicken house all day or under hens that want to set won't pass the test for Grade AA. So the egg farmer that produces Grade AA eggs must gather his eggs about 3 times a day, keep his broody hens shut up and deliver his eggs to the dealer while still in the bloom of youth and the dealer must get the eggs into the hands of the consumer before they have lost that bloom of youth. With a state egg inspector also a county egg inspector to watch the egg producers and dealers, a person, buying Grade AA should get fine eggs, well worth the small premium paid for them. —Adv.
